TALKING POINTS--PAY FOR CIA STATUTORY IG POSITION

*The recently enacted Inspector General Act for the Central Intelligence Agency is very specific in terms of how the IG will relate to the DCI, the Committee, and the expectations for the composition of the Office. However, the statute is silent on the amount of compensation for the individual assuming the position.

*The Senate has now confirmed Fred Hitz to be the first occupant of that position and he will be sworn in shortly. The DCI is eager to get the new Office off to a good start, and he has pointed out to us the anomaly created by the statute's silence on the pay issue. The DCI believes, and we agree, that the CIA IG should be compensated at the Executive Schedule Level IV salary. The other statutory IGs, including those at DOD and State, are at this level.

Amendment to Title 5 of the United States Code:

Section 5315 of Title 5, United States Code is amended to insert at the end thereof:

"Inspector General, Central Intelligence Agency"

Analysis: This amendment is necessary to correct an oversight in the enactment of the legislation creating the Inspector General at the CIA, section 17 of the CIA Act of 1949. The enabling legislation for this position is silent on the amount of compensation that an individual should receive for holding this post. Comparable positions at other government agencies, including the Departments of State and Defense, are entitled to compensation at the Executive Schedule Level IV as set out in 5 U.S. Code section 5315.
